

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indecent. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.

PLEADS FOR MEN TO STAY IN SOUTH

John Skelton Williams Makes Address at South Carolina University.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Columbia, S. C., June 8.—Holding the close attention of the 3,000 representative South Carolinians, John Skelton Williams, of Richmond, addressed the graduating classes of the University of South Carolina last night, taking as his subject "The Man and the Opportunity." The leading business men of the city were present in large numbers.

Governor Ansel, characterizing Mr. Williams as a foremost Southern captain of finance, introduced him to the audience. The oration of Mr. Williams created a profound impression. At its conclusion Mr. Williams was warmly congratulated in the name of the university by President S. C. Mitchell, formerly of Richmond College. Mr. Williams is accompanied by E. C. Massey and Colonel Anderson.

Mr. Williams made an eloquent plea for young men to remain in the South, saying in part: "Not in any spirit of sectionalism or selfishness do I urge and advise the younger men before me to seek their opportunity and to concentrate their effort and apply their training here in the South. Their duty is here. I know and speak with knowledge because I have tried. I am one of a family of six brothers, no one of whom is north of the Mason-Dixon line or west of the Mississippi. We have found in the South demand for all our energies, reward for all our efforts, increase and growth smiling in abundant returns for the labor of hands and brain."

"We are but at the beginning of things. The South with slavery and slack and carelessly lordly methods of agriculture, because the land was so good and there seemed to be no reason to urge it, skimmed her cream and luxuriated in a little of it and gave the richness and substance of it to others. Through scores of years we left our water-power to tumble and splash idly down the shoals. We wanted care less and undisturbed millions and millions of dollars of coal and iron. We burned other countless millions from our forests, and we wanted and destroyed a wasterful and wanton and destroying agricultural system. We paid tribute with lavish hands and the discovery of the undiscovered, the transmission into values by the power of the neglected and overlooked—there are tasks worthy of the strength of stronger men. They arouse the sacred impulses of patriotism and promise rewards to earnest ambition. They make it employment for the thought and hands of those in whose veins runs the blood of peerless warriors and leaders and kings among men. The work that is to be done can be done best by the young men of the South, creating power and glory and might for the place of their own nativity, employing to the highest ends the inheritance left them by their fathers, establishing here at their home a heritage for their children. It can be led best by the educated, the college-bred, the mentally trained and stored young men of the South."

May Erect Immense Coal Pier.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., June 8.—President L. E. Johnston, of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, was in the city yesterday, and inspected the road's waterfront at the terminal at Lambert's Point. It is said that the company is planning to spend millions on a great coal pier at these terminals. It is understood that they are to be the greatest coal piers in the world, rivaling the one recently created by the Virginian. Mr. Johnston would not discuss the rumor.

Coleman—Gillespie.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Culpeper, Va., June 8.—A quiet wedding at the home of the bride was solemnized here last evening, when James Coleman and Miss Mary Gillespie, both of Culpeper, were married. Rev. J. W. Ware, of the Episcopal Church, of Culpeper, performed the marriage ceremony. After an entertainment at the home of the bride, the couple left for a honeymoon trip.

Wilson—Stockard.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., June 8.—In the First Presbyterian Church at 5 o'clock there was the marriage of Miss Elsie Stockard, daughter of President Jerome Stockard, of Peace Institute, and Professor Arthur J. Wilson, Knoxville, Tenn., instructor in chemistry, Cornell University.

The church was decorated in palms and the bride and the bridesmaids attired in white. The bride, who was Mrs. Tom Moore, Norfolk; the bridesmaids Miss Amy Stockard, Miss Pauline Hill, Miss Vivian Moncre, and Miss May Montague. The best man was Dr. Joel Whitaker, and the groomsmen Henry Steed, Burlington; LeRoy Abernathy, Hickory; F. O. Perkins, Adeka, and George McMiller, Raleigh. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left for a trip North.

Pistol Wound Proves Fatal.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., June 8.—Zack Dawson, who was shot by Edgar Lee, both colored, at a colored church picnic, in Spotsylvania county, died yesterday, and here is in jail awaiting trial. A special term of the Circuit Court of Spotsylvania county will be held June 22 to consider the case.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE
PUBLIC AUCTION OF THE VALUABLE IMPROVED REAL ESTATE, KNOWN AS 3111 E. BROAD ST.
In execution of a decree of the Law and Equity Court of Richmond, Va., entered May 30, 1910, in the suit of E. T. Robinson et als. vs. George C. Robinson et als., the undersigned, special commissioners therein appointed, will sell by public auction, at the premises, on THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1910,
at 6 o'clock P. M., the brick dwelling, No. 3111 East Broad Street, Richmond, Va., described in said decree as fronting on the south side of Broad Street twenty-nine feet (29) four inches (4), and running back between parallel lines one hundred and fifty feet to an alley thirty feet wide, now standing in the name of James H. Crenshaw, sub. trustee.

The above described property is a very comfortable old-fashioned home, and will be desirable either as a home or an investment, as the location is good.
TERMS: One-third cash; balance in two equal installments, payable in one and two years, respectively, after date of sale, with interest at 8 per cent. per annum from date of sale, payable semi-annually, the deferred payments to be evidenced by negotiable notes of the purchaser, and with the privilege to the purchaser to anticipate the payment thereof at any time with proper rebate of interest; the title to said real estate to be retained by the court until the full amount of the purchase price and interest has been paid, and deed executed and given by order of the court.
The purchaser may pay all cash if he desires to do so.
J. R. FLORANCE,
LEWIS C. WILLIAMS,
Special Commissioners.

EXECUTRIX'S SALE
OF
A LARGE AND ATTRACTIVE BUSINESS LOT, FRANKLIN AND FIFTEENTH STREETS, AT AUCTION.
As executrix of the late Anna E. George, I will offer for sale by auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1910,
at 5 o'clock P. M., that large, centrally located business lot above referred to, fronting about 75 feet at the north-west corner of Franklin and Fifteenth Streets, with a depth along Fifteenth Street of approximately 130 feet. Close to railroad, in the very heart of the city and large enough for commodious storehouses or warehouses, this property is valuable, and should attract every class of purchasers.
TERMS: One-third cash, and the residue at one and two years, with interest semi-annually, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.
